II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

Service of Process

What do I do after I file a complaint?

If you filed an Application to Proceed in Forma Pauperis (also called an IFP application) and it is granted, the Clerk's Office will send you blank summonses and USM-285 Process Receipt and Returns for each defendant to be completed by you and returned to the Clerk's Office for service of process by the Marshal Service. The defendants will then be served the summons and complaint by a United States Marshal at no cost to you. However, a U.S. Marshal will serve only those defendants for whom you have submitted a properly completed marshal service form. You must submit one properly completed marshal service form for each defendant to be served. U.S. Marshal Service forms are available from the Clerk's Office, or on the Court's website.

If you did not file an Application to Proceed in Forma Pauperis, or if you filed the application but it was denied, (and your case is not being dismissed) you must arrange on your own to have a copy of the summons and complaint served on each defendant. You can get a Summons in a Civil Action form from the Clerk's Office or on the Court's website. When you complete it, bring it to the Clerk's Office to have it signed and sealed by a Deputy Clerk. You should keep the original summons that has been signed and sealed and file it with the Clerk's Office, along with a proof of service for each defendant. The Proof of Service form is attached to the Summons in a Civil Action form. Your lawsuit will not proceed until you serve copies of the summons and complaint on each named defendant.

When must the summons and complaint be served?

A plaintiff has 90 days from the date the complaint was filed to serve a copy of the summons and the complaint. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m).

Who can serve the summons and complaint?

Most litigants hire a professional process server to serve the summons and complaint on each defendant, but it is not necessary to hire a professional. Any person who is at least 18-years-old and not a party to the lawsuit may serve a summons and complaint. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4 (c)(2) for more information.

Do I have to hand-deliver the summons and complaint?

In most instances, you will have to arrange to have the summons and complaint hand-delivered to each defendant. This can be avoided by asking each defendant to accept
